STILL FURTHER PROOF
OF THE LOWER AND EFFICACY OF
Thompson's Compound Syrup
IN CONSUMPTION

Philadelphia March 1st 1894

I hereby certify that in consequence of repeated neglected Colds my lungs became seriously inflamed, and for some time I have suffered with violent pain in the breast sometimes cough and difficult expectoration. The symptoms daily increasing in violence I had recourse to various remedies with no avail, until I used Thompson's Compound Syrup of Tar which effected a perfect cure before had taken three bottles. J. F. EVANS

HOUSE KEEPERS should be sure and examine this superior stove, which has won the admiration of several thousand house keepers the past year. It has more real and useful improvements in all others combined. The fire back (oven) has proved to be of great value in absorbing the heat and saving the bread to rise and bake light and in the house back oven. The brick in and to be more durable than the iron tile. It always keeps the heat around the oven, and a much even bake is produced in this stove than any other stove known. It has an air perfect arrangement for roasting in front. The machinery arrangement for broiling, boiling, steaming, &c., is complete. The grate cleans itself, discharging the ashes into the ash pit. The flues are large and so arranged as not to fill up with ashes. It is superi-
